

CONNETQUOT SEPTA - "Carry the Card that Counts"

Serves district wide as:

- A powerful voice for all children,
- A relevant resource for families and communities, and
- A strong advocate for the education and well-being of every child.

Why join SEPTA? The number one reason to join the SEPTA is to benefit your child. In doing so, you also help your school and your district. Like all children, children with special needs (whether their special needs are a result of developmental disabilities, learning disabilities, health conditions, or even giftedness) benefit from parent involvement in partnership with teachers, principals, and other school staff. But there are many more SEPTA advantages:

- Get Connected. There's no better way to know what's happening in your school.
- Discover Great Resources. The PTA offers a variety of programs designed for parents as well as students.
- Tap into a Network. PTA functions are opportunities to meet other parents and teachers, building rapport and discussing issues that are on your mind. You can share ideas, concerns, and experiences.
- Watch Yourself Grow. By volunteering with your PTA, you put your skills and hobbies to use for a noble cause—your child and all children in the community.
- Speak Up. PTA can be a way for you to more effectively suggest change at your child's school.
- Be a Role Model. By becoming a PTA member, you'll be demonstrating to your child the importance you place on education.

For less than 6 cents a day, you can become a SEPTA member, joining other people who share your interest in issues affecting children. Everyone—parents, educators, students and other citizens active in their schools and communities—is invited to join our not-for-profit parent association.
